B224 / B524 / B724 - Ephesians Course Description & Syllabus

This course on Ephesians is an extensive and expository teaching, line by line, on what many have called the Alps of the Bible. In this one Book of the Bible, God intended to provide believers with a road map to move into the unity of the faith and unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. The student will gain a deeper understanding of the themes of unity, reconciliation, and love with a glimpse into God's plan, as related through Paul, for the believer (the church) and discover how the Gospel intends to affect everyday life. This course can be taken on an undergraduate level of study (B224 - towards a Bachelor degree), or it can be taken on a graduate level of study (B524/B724 - towards a Masters or Doctors degree), providing the course requirements are met as explained in this course syllabus.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

ACADEMIC--- For students to gain an in-depth understanding of Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians. Ephesians was really written to the body of Believer's, God's church, and family.

ATTITUDINAL--- For students to gain an understanding of God's blueprint to enter into what one might call the stature of the fullness of Christ, in all things Father God planned for His family here on earth.

BEHAVIORAL--- For the student to enter into and apply the major tenets of the Book of Ephesians.
