

THE RELATIONSHIP OF SELF-CONFRONTATION TO NOUTHETIC COUNSELING

Self-confrontation

You, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? (Romans 2:21)

For in the way you judge, you will be judged, and by your standard of measure, it shall be measured to you. And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye? (Matthew 7:2-3)

Let not many of you become teachers, my brethren, knowing that as such we shall incur a stricter Judgment. (James 3:1)

For though by this time you (we) ought to be teachers, you (we) have need again for someone to teach you (us) the elementary principles of the oracles of God. (Hebrews 5:12)

Therefore, bring forth fruit in keeping with your repentance. (Matthew 3:8)

You shall consecrate yourselves therefore and be holy, for I am the Lord your God. And you shall keep my statutes and practice them; I am the Lord who sanctifies you. (Leviticus 20:7-8)

Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves. (2 Corinthians 13:5a)

Watch yourselves, that you might not lose what we have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward. (2 John 1:8)

Therefore, let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. (1 Corinthians 10:12)

Nouthetic Counseling

Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God. (Colossians 3:16)

And concerning you, my brethren, I, myself also am convinced that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able also to admonish one another. (Romans 15:14)

And, fathers, do not provoke your children to anger; but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. (Ephesians 6:4)

And if anyone does not obey your instruction in this letter, take special note of that man and do not associate with him, so that he may be put to shame. And yet do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. (2 Thessalonians 3:14-15)

Therefore, be on the alert, remembering that night and day for a period of three years I did not cease to admonish each one with tears. (Acts 20:31)

But encourage one another day after day (Hebrews 3:13a)

And let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more, as you see the day drawing near. (Hebrews 10:24-25)
