

SELF-CONFRONTATION EVALUATION

1. The following is an evaluation of the problem I have chosen to work on during this course:

---

2. On the scale below, "0" means "no ability to understand or control my problem." Ten ("10") means "complete understanding and control of my problem." When I entered this Self-confrontation Course, my understanding of my problem was shown as a number with a circle around it. My control over my problem is shown as a number with a square around it:

0      1      2      3      4      5      6      7      8      9      10

3. Having now completed the course, my understanding of my problem is shown as a number with a circle around it. My control of the problem is shown as a number with a square around it.

0      1      2      3      4      5      6      7      8      9      10

4. Having completed the course, my reactions to it are shown by a check mark beside the appropriate statement(s) below.

☐ I understand my failure to live according to the Scripture generally, and have confidence that I can now live a more abundant life.

☐ I am making headway, but would like to take the course again.

☐ The course hasn't helped me very much.

☐ I would like to continue training and start the next course in nouthetic counseling.

☐ I think the course should be improved. Here are my suggestions:
